STORYLINES

CHAMPIONSHIP

Rookie Sensation Antonelli Leads Title Race After Florida Triumph

Kimi Antonelli has opened a 20-point lead over teammate George Russell following a third victory of the season in Miami.

TECHNICAL

FIA Monitors Engine Performance Under New ADUO Upgrade System

The first monitoring period for the 2026 Power Unit regulations concludes, determining which manufacturers receive extra development tokens.

DRIVER MARKET

Rumors Swirl Around Hamilton Retirement and Verstappen Future

Speculation intensifies regarding Lewis Hamilton's potential exit from Ferrari in 2026, while Red Bull targets Piastri as a contingency.

THINGS TO WATCH

High track temperatures in Miami test Pirelli's softest range (C3-C5), where thermal degradation outweighs mechanical wear. Watch the technical battle as McLaren and Ferrari bring major upgrades to close the gap on the dominant Mercedes W17, while Alpine looks to maintain its surprising midfield lead.
